THE AUDUBON SCHOOL

Welcome to our Private Elementary School

It is with great joy and anticipation that I extend a heartfelt welcome to you as you begin your journey with us. Whether this is your child's first year in school or a transition to a new educational setting, we are honored that you have chosen The Audubon School to be a part of this important chapter in their growth and development.

At The Audubon School at Pine Bluff, our mission is to nurture each child's curiosity, confidence, and love of learning in a warm, inclusive, and academically rich environment. We believe in cultivating not only strong minds but kind hearts, emphasizing character development, creativity, and a strong sense of community alongside rigorous academic preparation.

As the owner, I am deeply committed to creating a school culture that values every child as an individual. Our dedicated team of educators works closely with families to ensure that each student feels safe, supported, and inspired to reach their full potential.

We encourage open communication and active partnership with our families, and we look forward to working with you throughout the year. You will receive regular updates, have opportunities to participate in school events, and be part of a community that truly cares.

Please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any questions or simply want to connect. We're here to help make this a smooth and joyful transition for your child.

Once again, welcome! We're excited for the year ahead and the opportunity to learn and grow together.

Warm regards,

Keidra Burrell
Chief Operating Officer
